

DDE Newsletter No. 304

Climate Crisis – Climate Justice

'It helped me feed my six children': how Africa's first water fund supports farmers to protect Kenya's biggest river. Conserving the watershed of the Tana and improving farming methods is securing water supplies and livelihoods alike in a changing climate. Read more ...

Wind turbines were built to generate electricity — Now engineers say something very different may come out of their towers that we may need every day. Read more ...

What does the Iran war mean for clean energy transition? Here's what to know about how the current crisis could shape the expansion of renewable energy. Read more ...

Two women, two different continents - but they've the same problem with their farms. Jackline Mugoboka farms a small area in rural Rwanda. Louise Skelly is a sheep farmer in County Down. Read more ...

Other News

Now in power, Nepal's rapper-politician Balen Shah faces new challenge. Shah was a rebel – crude and different from the politicians who previously led Nepal. How will he be in office? Read more ...

'Never lose hope'. The Mothers of the Plaza Mayor confront new hurdles 50 years after Argentina's coup d'etat. Read more ...

UN votes to recognise enslavement of Africans as 'gravest crime against humanity' Read more ...

Gaza's new border: The farmers who can't get to their land beyond Israel's 'yellow line'. New data reveals 94 per cent of Gaza's agricultural land is unusable. Read more ...

Local news ...

Repair services offer new opportunities for fashion brands ... brands offering repair services can gain commercially as consumer expectations shift towards durability, fairness and longevity. Read more ...

Major new study will explore educational experiences of unaccompanied asylum-seeking children. Read more ...

Ted Wragg Trust Devon foundation degree to boost career. Read more ...

Topics discussed at Thursday's World at Lunch

What makes some languages sound BEAUTIFUL? Watch ...

I didn't realise I still had my mother tongue in me – until I spoke Urdu in my sleep. There was something instinctive about it, like a current pulling me back towards the language of my parents and grandparents.

Read more ...

Post-card From... Bucharest. Dozens of mod-els with Down's syn-drome took part in a fash-ion show for an even-ing cel-eb-rat-ing style, "atyp-ical beauty" and cour-age to mark World Down Syn-drome Day.

Read more ...

New archbishop of Canterbury acknowledges abuse of 'victims and survivors' in first sermon. Sarah Mullally is formally installed as the Church of England's spiritual head in grand ceremony. Read more ...

Watch ...

How Tragedy, Wealth and Trump Shaped JB Pritzker. Read more ...

Democrats flip Florida state seat that includes Trump's Mar-a-Lago home. Read more ...

Trump's horrors keep accumulating. We need the No Kings protests more than ever. Thousands of No Kings events will be fueled by anger over ICE violence, the Epstein files released and a war in Iran. These protests have power. Read more ...

Campaign Updates ...

Amnesty: Quit ChatGPT: right now! Your subscription is bankrolling authoritarianism. As a historian, I've studied the major consumer boycotts of history. We can take down ChatGPT and send a powerful signal to Silicon Valley. Read more ...

Fairtrade: The Best Fairtrade Easter Eggs 2026. Find our selection of the best ethical, sustainable Easter eggs that use Fairtrade certified cocoa Read more ...